WHY FLAG?

Did you know that while youth participation in sports overall has declined 13% over the last decade, more kids than ever are getting involved with flag football?

Flag is more than just a game – it’s a values-focused activity and community for your child to learn and grow with. See for yourself what makes flag the right choice for your family.

THE END-GAME:

Supporting Community
Flag football creates a welcoming community for your child to be a part of and grow with across their journey with the sport.

Sense of Achievement
Flag football provides an avenue for your child to celebrate their achievements, from winning games, to growing their trophy collection, to tracking progress and improvement in skills.

Active Lifestyle
Flag football is a key tool in helping your child develop life-long healthy habits – instead of staying inside playing video games, flag gets them up, gets them out and gets them exercising.

Did you know that while youth participation in sports overall has declined 13% over the last decade, more kids than ever are getting involved with flag football?

Flag is more than just a game – it’s a values-focused activity and community for your child to learn and grow with. See for yourself what makes flag the right choice for your family.

The sport teaches you that things don’t always go the way you want. Sometimes, this is hard and you have to be gracious in the way you deal with others no matter the circumstances.

- Parent of a current player

Did you know that the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) plans to launch the First College Sanctioned Women’s Flag Football League in the spring of 2021?

Did you know that between 2017 and 2019, flag football participation among 6-to-12-year-olds increased by 38%? There were more flag players among this age group than tackle players!

Did you know that 68% of surveyed parents agree that flag football offers inclusivity for kids of all ages?

Did you know that 72% of surveyed parents agree that flag football is useful and/or necessary before transitioning to tackle?

Safely Stats:

NFL FLAG coaches must complete yearly health & safety trainings.

NFL FLAG coaches complete background check screenings prior to the start of each season.

The same standards and game rules apply to all NFL Flag leagues.

To learn more, visit PlayFootball.com